To Whom It May Concern:

Salim J Radi is a highly competent accountant who worked as my colleague in P.T. Anderson, Inc. from January 4, 2019 to April 22, 2019. Salim performed any task asked of him and brought great value to the accounting firm. During the 16 weeks (40 hours per week) that we worked together, Salim performed the following roles:

- Prepare and submit payroll, sales tax and quarterly payments and reports
- Prepare budgets for business owners
- Tax planning for corporate, partnership and individual taxpayers
- Write up work for small businesses
- Prepare and review financial statements, financial analysis and lead projects
- Prepare tax returns including 1120, 1120S, 1065, 990, 1040 tax forms
- Ensuring clients are complying with federal, state, & local regulatory requirements
- Assist clients using QuickBooks
- Maintain internal controls & accounting procedures
- Present financial results to clients
- Provide proficient tax advice to clients.

He performed all the accounting work in a diligent and professional manner. I can confidently recommend Salim to perform any accounting work. Please do not hesitate to contact me directly should you have any questions or would like additional information.

Sincerely,

William B. Hall, CPA
